Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

2009 Wisconsin Act 25 tolls the time for filing with the supreme court a petition for review of an adverse court of appeals decision while a timely motion for reconsideration is pending in the court of appeals. Act 25 prohibits a petitioner from filing a petition or a supplemental petition in the supreme court until after the court of appeals issues a response to a timely motion for reconsideration of any decision or order it issues. Act 25 also establishes a timeline for filing motions, petitions, and responses with the supreme court. Act 25 first applies to actions that are commenced on November 1, 2009, the effective date of the act.

Under this bill, the provisions of Act 25 first apply to motions for reconsideration that are filed on November 1, 2009.
